Claim 27 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,150,057. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because of the reasons of record, in paper no. 4, page 3.

Claims 21-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Berberick et al. (US 5,154,992), for reasons of record.

See paper no. 4, page 4. Since these claims now recite the term “vanadium oxide”, rather than the formula “V<sub>6</sub>O<sub>13</sub>”, they are accorded the filing date of the parent applications. Thus, the alternative rejection over subsection (b) is withdrawn.

The terminal disclaimer filed on 11/14/02 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of Patent No. 6,150,057 has been reviewed and is NOT accepted.

The attorney signing the terminal disclaimer is not of record in the declaration or a separate paper filed which appoints a new or associate attorney, nor is there a customer number. While the name of the attorney appears on several papers, there is no paper which actually makes this appointment.

Applicant's arguments and amendments have removed all rejections other than those specified above. Due to the deficiency in the terminal disclaimer, the obviousness type double patenting rejection remains.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 1745

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
